

2021 Camping Reservation Policy

To be fair to all members, we will be initiating a new policy for reserving and maintaining convention campsite reservations. The policy has become necessary to ensure that current members have primary access to camping reservations.

Going forward:

- Current members may reserve one (1) campsite for the following year's Convention.
- Groups can still reserve campsites but must bring (1) representative for every four (4) campsite reservations at the time of sign up. Campers must provide complete name, address, phone and email for EVERY site reserved.
- Reservations will only be accepted for members who are current. Current members may not sign up past members who plan to be current by the next convention. Spouses may not sign up for a campsite unless the spouse is also a current member. Reservations will be checked for membership status on site. Those not current members at the time of reservation will be rejected.
- Each camper must be a current PGI member and have their convention registration fees paid by June 1st of the following year to keep the reservation for that year's Convention.

Exceptions and grace periods will no longer be in effect.

Tip: Plan ahead! If you have a group that plans to camp, confirm that all are current members before you come to Convention. Ask for copies of your group members' current membership cards and attach them to the individual camping reservation forms so that there is no question concerning membership status.
